His parents are wealthy, and they provided him and his sister a loving environment growing up. He's never wanted for much, but he has a heart of gold. With his good grades and basketball scholarship, he's able to attend a prominent college, but he doesn't want to live out of state. He can't bear the thought of leaving behind the one thing he loves more than basketball. Stormy Reece. Stormy Reece grew up in the most unusual conditions. Meeting Bo and his family was the best thing that ever happened to her. They met behind the Mexican Restaurant he and his family frequented when he was seven, and she was five. Her single mother worked there most days and nights so Stormy was always there hanging out in the kitchen or in the back alley. Without a father figure in her life, she rebelled in her late teens. She went to parties with the friends she had made that were horrible influences, stayed out till all...
