STONE OF LANGUAGE

West End Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Stone of Language, Anya Achtenberg, Following the troubled course of the last decade, these poems move from the stories of individual lives to the events that have entered our global consciousness. They explore the world of work, from circuses to wedding ring factories to classrooms; and the world of war, from the agonies of Israel/Palestine to the Bosnian war to New York of 9/11. They examine the need for flight and...
