Excerpt: .that the young master has never been near his old nurse, or given me so much as a good morning, since the day he came back to Leghorn. And so fond of his old Catarina as he used to be! I remember him when he had the fever; not a spoonful of medicine would he touch if Catarina was not there to give it to him. But things change in this world, they do; it s a pity, while they re about it, they don t sometimes change for the better. There d be more change i that. Dino smiled faintly. Well, well, mother! there s no good fretting over what can t be helped. Don t worry yourself, that s the most important. Ah, don t worry! that s a man s way all over. As if one sent out to the market to buy trouble, for fear of not having enough at home! But it s easy work telling your mother not to worry, Dino, when she sees you going about with such a look on your face. Nay, mother, suppose we let my face take care of itself. He mastered his impatience with an effort, and added, If you would only believe me you would not make yourself so unhappy. Italia and I understand one another perfectly. Well, if that s what you and she call a perfect understanding, tis a pity you don t try mistaking one another for a little. It might make you both look a bit happier. It was more like a funeral, coming home the other day, than anything else that I could give a name to. Not that...
