Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Junior High School The author is frank to admit that this book is not a complete treatise on the junior high school. To write such a treatise there would have to be available a vast mass of facts, statistics, and experimental data about the subject. The junior high school is too new an institution to have had time and opportunity for the accumulation of such scientific material. There has been an insistent demand for a reorganization of our school system. It did not seem as if those demands could be met under the 8-4 plan of grouping grades. There arose - in response to the demand - a new institution, the junior high school, created to carry out the reorganization. It was not as if an old institution had been asked to do new work. Not at all. It was pretty well decided before-hand what was needed to be done. The problem was, can the present organizations do the things needed? Some educators said, yes. Others said, no, and proceeded to create a new school to do the work. Since then Professor Johnston s statement that the junior high school movement is sweeping the country has become literally true. There have been some precedents in Europe and in this country for the creation of this school. These fore-runners are briefly described by the author. It is not pretended, however, that these were real junior high schools. This book is put forth as a guide for the study of the junior high school movement. It is full of suggestions, full of arguments, full of enthusiastic hopes. It is put forth as a pathfinder. About the...
