Here we saw the son carrying his old father out of and into the canoe. In the evening there was in camp a supper of turtles, taken I on the way, to which all were asked. Saturday, 28. In the forenoon we had to go through rough water, but in the afternoon it was better. Several sisters went for cranberries, and came to us in camp at night. We did not get a sight of those who went by land with the cattle to-day, but we saw their camp. We found out and saw.that in the spring the river rises twenty feet or more, therefore all the bottoms are covered. Some canoes, being weak, stayed back. Sunday, 29. We had to get by some bad places, and help the cattle get over the river again, when some would have...
