Parliament unto him, and to desire him to repair hither in pursuance of the said vote. 2 There is so much difference between the account of this business given in the Memoirs of Ludlow, and the account of it given in the Memoirs of Mrs. Hutchinson, that probably either Lambert or his wife--who was, says Mrs. 1 Order Book of the Council of MS. State Paper Office. State, Wednesday, January 21, 165i, 2 Ibid. Friday, January 31, 1051. Hutchinson, as proud as her husband --had given some offence to that austere and haughty matron. And as we know little of Lambert s pedigree, a matter of immense weight with Mrs. Hutchinson, further than that he is said to have been born of a good family, and to have been educated for the bar, Mrs. Hutchinson probably considered it a piece of high presumption for a...
