Brand New Book  Print on Demand .While winter rages outside in the city and the snow relentlessly keeps falling, she thinks back on times past - both good times and bad. What did she in fact do at the crossroads of life, and were her choices right or all wrong? The choices. They were many, and some had consequences larger than one person could handle. Did she choose well or should she have walked down other paths. And, in the end, does she really want to change anything? With her cat as company, she starts a diary. She puts down her hidden away reflexions over a life that could have been and a life that is.
