Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Brand-New Ballads It was in the Middle Ages - bout the end of Sixty-eight, So I found the hoary legend written on an ancient slate - That one Ezry Jenks prospecting, when he reached this blooming spot, Thus uplifted to his pardner: Glory! Moses, let us squat! Thus rebounded Moses Adams: Glory was the foremost word Which in the untrammelled silence of this wilderness was heard, And I arnswer, dimly feelin like a prophet, grand and slow, Glory kinder sounds like Money - up to glory let her go! And this casual conversation in the year of Sixty-eight, As if by an inspiration he recorded on a slate, Which t was said in later ages - six weeks after - used to hang As a curiositary in the principal shebang. On the spot that very evening they perceived a beauteous gleam About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
